

CURSED NECKLACE

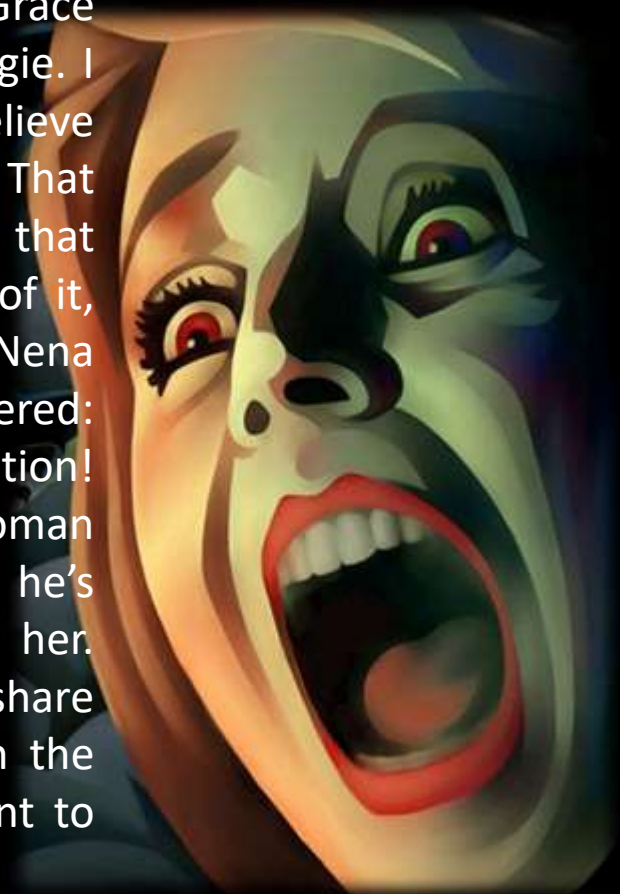

A smuggler girl Natasha told her mate Nena: "See what I've found! That beautiful, gorgeous necklace with a big green diamond! It is worth a fortune, at least a few thousand dollars. However, I will keep it for myself, I deserved it." Nena replied: "Hey that's an amazing necklace but how did you get it?"

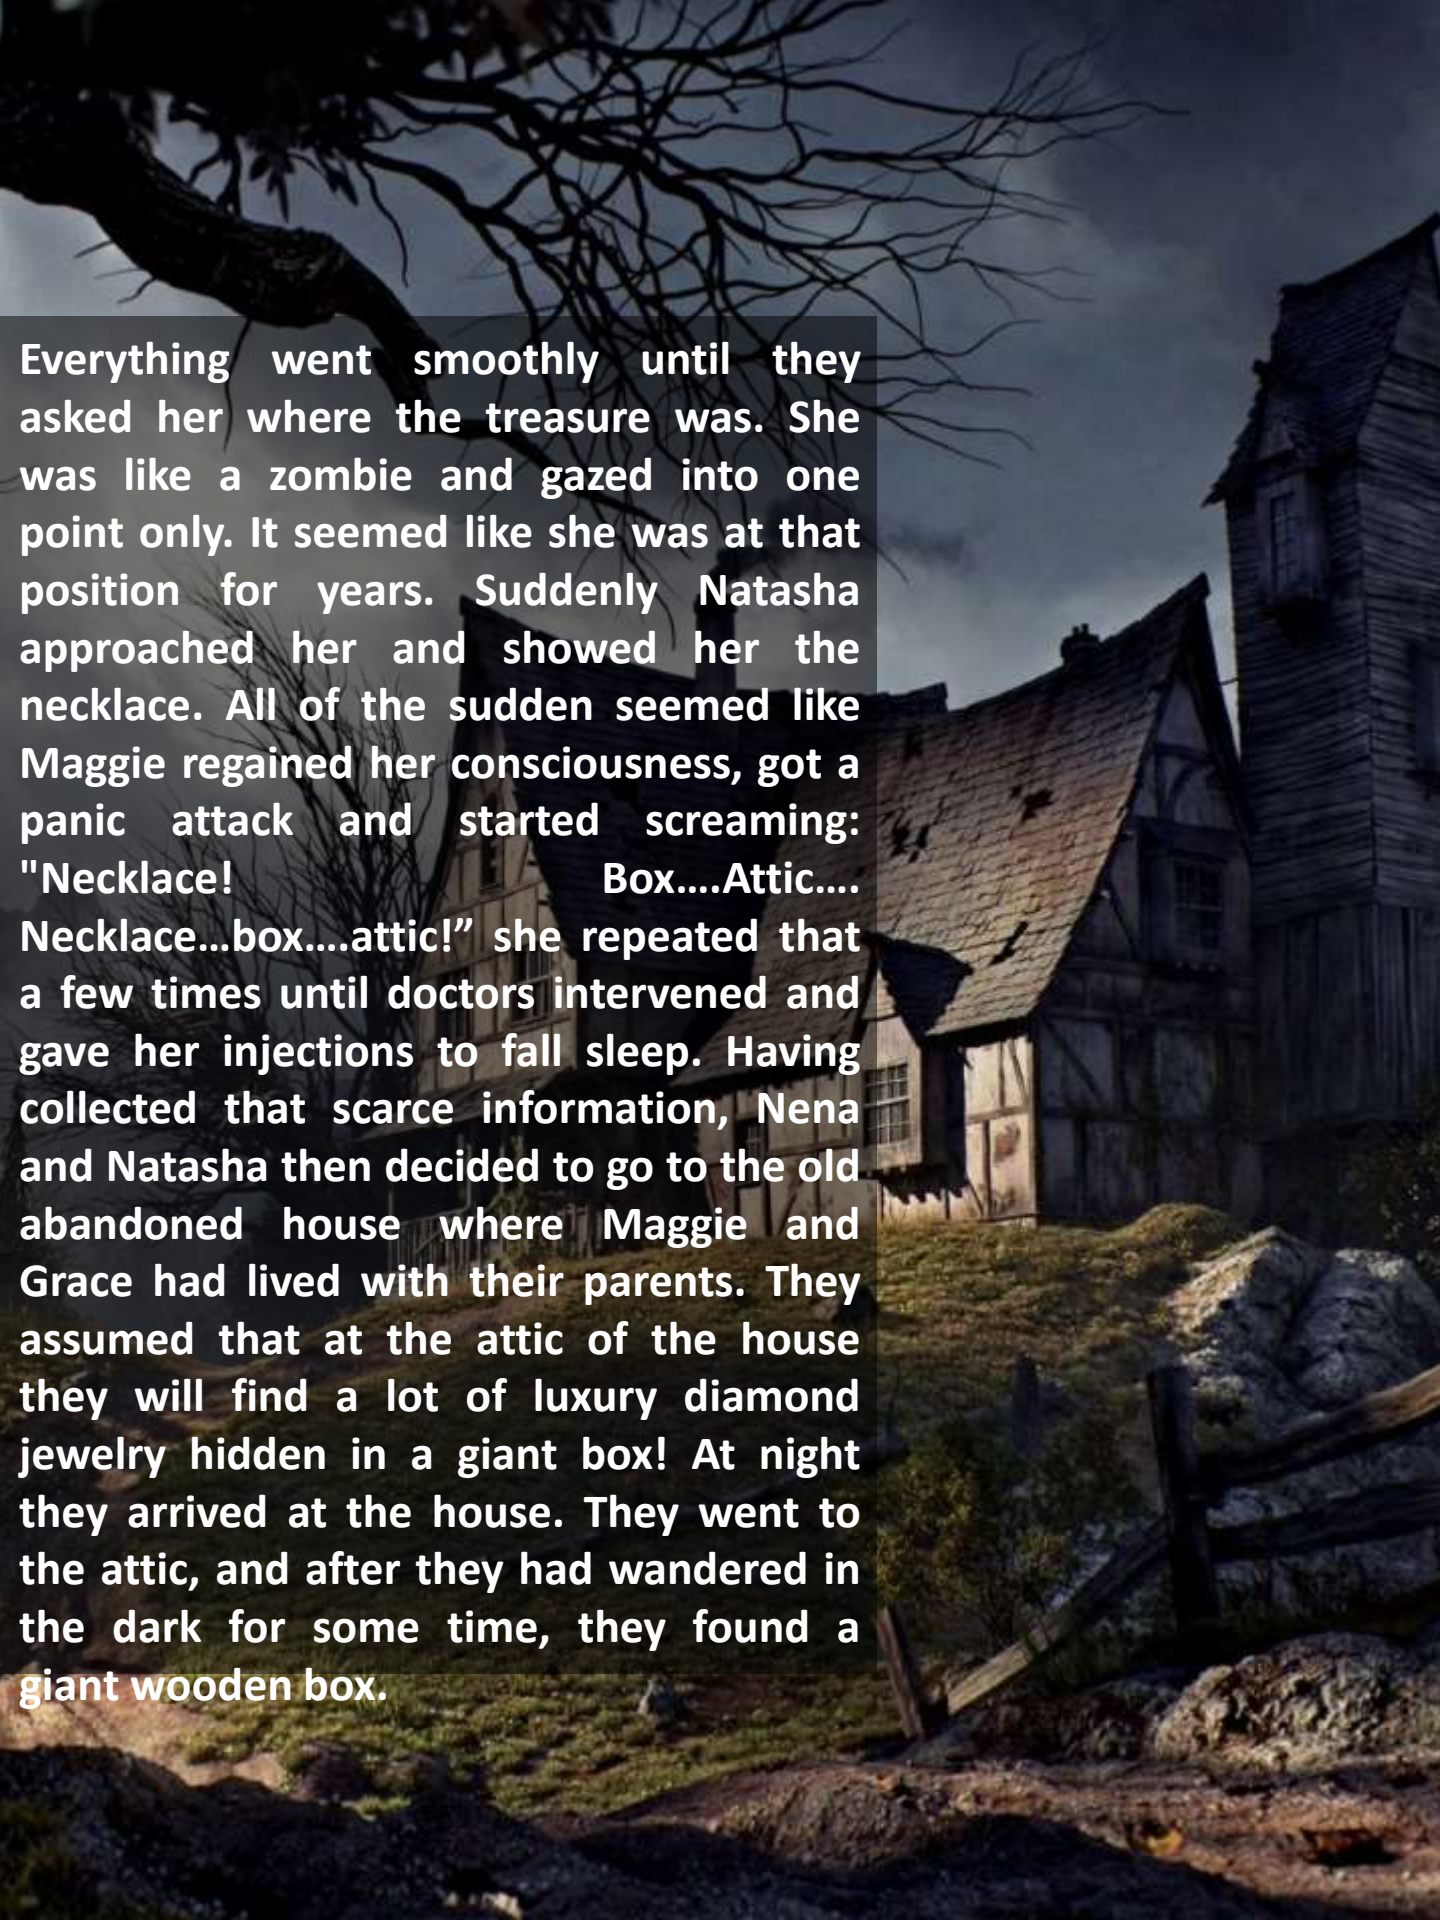

Natasha replied: "I got it from a smuggler Pole while we were on a vacation! It's easy to seduce a man when you are pretty... You can steal anything from him!" Nena: "But I've heard a spooky story behind it. It is said to be cursed. One sister was jealous of another because she got that necklace. Therefore, a sister had strangled the other one for it. A body was never found. The sister later went insane and right now she is in a sanctuary! She never revealed the location of the body. The crime took place 20 years ago.

It is said that the ghost of the poor girl is seeking that necklace back.” Natasha told her: "Yeah right, one of them was Grace who’s dead, and that crazy one is Maggie. I heard that story too, but just I don’t believe it. Wanna know what also I’ve heard? That she is not a loonie just because of that necklace. In fact, there is much more of it, tons of them hidden somewhere!” Nena asked her: "Really?” Natasha answered: "Really, I got corroborated information! Come with me. Let’s visit the insane woman in the sanctuary. I know a security guy, he’s my ex-boyfriend, he will let us talk to her. And because I like you, you’ll get your share when we discover the treasure.” Then the two girls made an agreement and went to visit Maggie in a mental hospital.

Everything went smoothly until they asked her where the treasure was. She was like a zombie and gazed into one point only. It seemed like she was at that position for years. Suddenly Natasha approached her and showed her the necklace. All of the sudden seemed like Maggie regained her consciousness, got a panic attack and started screaming: "Necklace! Box....Attic.... Necklace...box....attic!" she repeated that a few times until doctors intervened and gave her injections to fall sleep. Having collected that scarce information, Nena and Natasha then decided to go to the old abandoned house where Maggie and Grace had lived with their parents. They assumed that at the attic of the house they will find a lot of luxury diamond jewelry hidden in a giant box! At night they arrived at the house. They went to the attic, and after they had wandered in the dark for some time, they found a giant wooden box.

The box was impossible to move and they assumed it was full of jewelry. They couldn't wait to open it and once they did, they were shocked! They saw a rotten corpse lying in the box! That corpse was probably Grace! Natasha and Nena petrified. Suddenly the corpse jerked, bounced, and grabbed Natasha for her neck, and strangled her in a few seconds! Nena screamed and flung herself from the window. The attic was on the second floor. She fell on grass but survived. She got her legs broken and could not move. Neighbours saw a woman jumping out of the window and called the police and ambulance. When they arrived, they only saw dead Natasha and next to her there was lying a decomposed skeleton with a necklace on its neck. Nobody believed Nina what had happened once they found her. They put her in a mental institution as she was hysterical.

