

Devil's deal

HORROR VALLEY

horrorvalley.com

Elizabeth and Sean were in a relationship for a while. They have some arguing, and due to that, they decided to separate. She was calling Sean to come back but he didn't want to. Then she found out that he had had an affair with Marry, a girl from another classroom when they were still together. After the breakup, Sean and Merry would always walk together hand in hand, went together in clubs and so on. Everyone could see that they were happy. Elizabeth couldn't take that. She was annoyed even to know that Sean left her for that girl. She still loved him. One day, some girls told her in a joke that she could summon the "dark forces", to speak with the devil and ask him to get Sean back to her and to love only her. Moreover, she also could make Marry suffering for stealing him from her. Then one night, while she was feeling hurt and angry, Elizabeth took some candles, reversed crosses, and did all the preparations as the girls told her to summon the devil.

After everything was set up, she lightened up the candles, cut her arm a little to drip her blood, turned to the mirror and called the devil's name. Suddenly in the mirror, a horrific figure appeared. It was the demon himself. Horrific figure with aggressive red face with horns and yellow eyes was gazing at her. He asked her what she wanted. Elizabeth told him that she wanted Sean back, and Merry to suffer and become crippled so nobody would want her again. Devil told her that he could fix that but he wanted her soul for return. He also added that her soul would be suitable to serve in hell one day, with an evil tone. After that, the devil's hand emerged from the mirror, and grabbed Elizabeth for her neck telling her: "Now, we have a deal". The devil chuckled evilly and Elizabeth was terrified.

Suddenly, the alarm clock rang and Elizabeth woke up to go to school. She was in her bed. She realized that she obviously had a bad dream. In the school she heard that Marry had an accident that morning, she fell from the second floor and got almost paralyzed.

Sean came to her apologizing and telling her how he loved her. He tried to explain to her that all the stuff with Merry was a terrible mistake. She then figured out that her deal was actually working. Everything took an action just like Elizabeth planned. Sean would spend his days only with her. Everything was fine. During one night, they were at Sean's home, lying on the bed and watching movies. They soon fell asleep. A few hours later, Elizabeth woke up. The TV was still on, and she turned to Sean, but Sean was all pale and cold! Apparently, he was dead! Elizabeth screamed and started crying. Then, the same demon from the night she had summoned the devil appeared next to her. She asked him why Sean was dead. Demon contentedly replied with a grin: "I told you that I would bring him back to you, that was the deal, but I did not tell you for how long and in what circumstances! Hahaha, now you will serve to the hell"

